Design by Andreas Bergsaker

The latest design collaboration with Norwegian designer Andreas Bergsaker, Chisel Lounge Chair references the same-named classic carpentry tool in its historically grounded yet contemporary aesthetics. Created from the desire to design a solid wooden chair with a distinctive silhouette that would stand the test of time, the chair's considered craftsmanship and ergonomics provide optimal support and comfort in a visually appealing way. Chisel's compact size and wide variety of wood types, colours and upholstery options make it a versatile and relevant lounge chair that can easily be integrated in most private and public contexts.

CHISEL LOUNGE CHAIR

DESIGN BY ANDREAS BERGSAKER, 2023

Designed for HAY by Norwegian designer Andreas Bergsaker, Chisel Lounge Chair is a contemporary yet timeless take on the ever-relevant moulded plywood chair. Named after the classic carpentry tool, Chisel was created from the desire to design a solid wooden chair with a distinctive silhouette that would stand the test of time. Developed with optimal craftsmanship and ergonomics in mind, the chair's soft, organic seat and backrest provide good support in a visually inviting way, complemented by angled legs that echo the chisel references with their characteristically bevelled edges. Chisel Lounge Chair's wide variety of wood types, colours and front upholstery options, combined with its compact size makes it ideal for use in most domestic and public settings, from living rooms and bedrooms to waiting rooms, lobbies, and libraries.
